

The advertisement is a full-page spread. The left side features a close-up of a person's waist wearing a tan hunting vest over an orange shirt and blue jeans. A black Remington knife with a silver blade is tucked into a black leather sheath on the belt. A QR code is located in the lower-left quadrant of this side. The right side shows a person's hands in a tan shirt using a black Remington knife to gut a pheasant on a wooden stump. Another Remington knife in a black sheath lies on the stump in the foreground. The background is a blurred forest scene.
